SERVING IOWA

Senator Grassley proudly serves Iowans, and is ready to assist you. Here are just a few of the most common ways Senator Grassley and his experienced staff can lend a hand. For more information about services for Iowans, visit www.grassley.senate.gov/constituents.

FEDERAL AGENCY ASSISTANCE

Senator Grassley provides services for Iowans who are having problems dealing with a federal agency, including the Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services, the State Department, the IRS, Veterans Affairs, the Social Security Administration, and the branches of the military. Contact any office for assistance.

SCHEDULE A MEETING

Senator Grassley holds a constituent Q&A in every Iowa county at least once every year to hear what's on the minds of Iowans. He also attends events and visits with constituents across Iowa on the weekends and when the Senate is not in session. While in Washington, D.C., Senator Grassley dedicates time each day to meet with Iowans. Invitations or meeting requests can be submitted online or by phone.

VISITING WASHINGTON, D.C.

Senator Grassley's office can help to arrange tours of the United States Capitol and visits to other popular area sites, including the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the Kennedy Center, the White House and the FBI Education Center. Tours can be scheduled up to three months in advance pending availability.

HELP WITH FEDERAL GRANTS

Any Iowan who is making a grant application is encouraged to contact Senator Grassley's office to request a letter of support. Senator Grassley will evaluate grant applications made by Iowans and, whenever possible, send a letter directly to the federal agency. More information about federal grant opportunities is available online.

SERVICE ACADEMY NOMINATIONS

Senator Grassley selects 10 individuals to nominate for each vacancy at the Military, Air Force, Naval and Merchant Marine academies. Students interested in obtaining an academy appointment should begin the application process for a congressional nomination in the spring of their junior year of high school.
